PARTNER DISCUSSES BUSINESS IN FRANCE WITH TV

Jan 28, 2022

Is France a good place to do business? Didier Bruère-Dawson, partner in restructuring and head of the Special Situations team, was interviewed by the Bfm Business show.

He reviewed the strong French entrepreneurial environment, the increasing number of “unicorns,” greater foreign investment than in other countries and the influence of government reforms that are all contributing to driving the market. The wide-ranging interview also covered reform of collective procedures, encouragement of micro-enterprises, alignment of corporate tax and more. The legislative universe in France is also conducive to encouraging investment and aligns with other similar-minded countries.
